Why This Book Exists

Have you ever watched a sunset? It is beautiful. The colors are stunning. But it does not last. The light fades. The shadows grow. The night comes. And then the sun rises again. The light returns. It is eternal.

The Old Covenant is like a sunset. It was beautiful. It was given by God. It had colors and shadows and rituals that were stunning. But it was not meant to last forever. It was meant to fade. It was meant to point to something greater. It was meant to point to the sunrise. It was meant to point to Jesus.

This book is for the curious. It is for the spiritual seeker who senses there is more. It is for the person who has seen the shadows and wants to see the light. Over the next 30 days, we are going to look at the Old Covenant. We are going to see its beauty. We are going to see its limitations. We are going to see its purpose. And we are going to discover that every shadow was pointing to an eternal light. That light is Jesus.

The Value You Will Get

By the end of this book, you will not see the Old Covenant as a failed experiment. You will see it as a divine preparation. You will understand why it was given. You will understand why it faded. You will see the spiritual meaning behind the symbols. And you will have a new appreciation for the New Covenant. You will see that the light is not fading. The light is eternal.

The 30-Day Light Challenge
You have journeyed through 30 days of shadows and light. Now what? I challenge you to read the book of Hebrews. It is 13 chapters. It is the perfect follow-up to this book. It will show you how Jesus is greater than the angels, greater than Moses, greater than the priests, and greater than the sacrifices. As you read, look for the shadows. Look for the light. Look for Jesus.

A Note on Faith

The shadows are evidence. They are evidence of a divine plan. But evidence does not save you. The shadows point to a person. The shadows point to Jesus. You can understand the shadows and still miss the light. The invitation is for your heart. Jesus said, "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in." The shadows are on the table. The door is open. It is your choice.
