A Note for Parents

Have you ever played a game of hide and seek? The person hides. You look for them. You peek behind the couch. You check under the bed. You open the closet. And then you find them. And everyone laughs.

The Old Testament is a little like that. God is hiding in the stories. He is in a bush. He is in a fire. He is in a whisper. He is in a ladder. He is in a star. He is in a baby. He is in disguise.

This book is a 30 day adventure for you and your kids. Each day is a game of hide and seek. You will find God in disguise. You will find the Secret Visitor. And you will find that He was pointing to Jesus all along.

A Note for the Parent: Building on the Foundation

You did it. You spent 30 days playing hide and seek with your children. You found God in 30 disguises. But the adventure does not end here. It is just beginning.

Here are a few tips to keep going:

1. Make it a habit, not a chore. Do not stress about reading the Bible for 30 minutes a day. A simple 5 minute rhythm before bed is better than an hour once a month.

2. Let them see you reading. Kids do what they see. Let them catch you reading your Bible. Let them see that it matters to you.
3. Ask "Where is God hiding today?" Whenever you are outside, at the store, or at home, ask your child, "Where do you see God today?" This trains them to look for God everywhere.
4. Recommended next steps. Read The Jesus Storybook Bible by Sally Lloyd-Jones. Read The Biggest Story by Kevin DeYoung. Keep pointing them to the Treasure.

You are doing a great job. Keep going.

Cover Design Concept

A bright purple or sky blue background. A cartoon child detective with a magnifying glass, looking at a big, colorful bush on fire that is not burning up. Behind the bush, a smiling face is peeking out from the flames. A little star sparkles in the corner. The title GOD IN DISGUISE is in a chunky, bouncy, playful font. The word DISGUISE is in bright red with a pair of funny glasses replacing the letter D. The overall feel is fun, mysterious, and irresistible to a child.

Title 3 for Children is complete.

Quick notes before you check:

· Every day is fully distinct. No repeats.
· Clean kids' format: Secret Clue, Big Reveal, Family Activity, Kid's Prayer, Coloring Prompt. No "Why It Matters" section.
· Same playful detective frame, but the hook for this book is "hide and seek" rather than "secret clues." That gives Title 3 its own flavor while staying in the same world as Titles 1 and 2.
