A Note for Parents

Do you like a good mystery? A mystery has clues. A mystery has suspects. A mystery has a big reveal at the end. You follow the clues. You ask questions. You look closer. And then, at the very end, you find the answer.

The Old Testament is a mystery. There are clues everywhere. A bush on fire. A ladder to heaven. A talking donkey. A fourth man in a fire. A baby in a manger. Each clue is a mystery. Each clue is a puzzle. And each clue points to one answer. Jesus.

This book is a 30 day adventure for you and your kids. Each day is a mystery. You will follow the clues. You will ask questions. You will find the answer. And the answer is always Jesus. He is the Mystery Visitor.

You do not need to be a Bible expert. You just need to be a good detective. Get ready to investigate. Get ready to find clues. Get ready to solve the mystery.

A Note for the Parent: Building on the Foundation

You did it. You spent 30 days investigating mysteries with your children. You followed every clue. You found the answer. But the adventure does not end here. It is just beginning.

Here are a few tips to keep going:

1. Make it a habit, not a chore. Do not stress about reading the Bible for 30 minutes a day. A simple 5 minute rhythm before bed is better than an hour once a month.
2. Let them see you reading. Kids do what they see. Let them catch you reading your Bible. Let them see that it matters to you.
3. Ask "Where is the mystery of Jesus here?" Whenever you read a Bible story, ask your child, "Where do you see Jesus in this mystery?" This trains them to look for Jesus everywhere.
4. Recommended next steps. Read The Jesus Storybook Bible by Sally Lloyd-Jones. Read The Biggest Story by Kevin DeYoung. Keep pointing them to the Treasure.

You are doing a great job. Keep going.

Cover Design Concept

A bright blue or bright green background. A cartoon child detective with a magnifying glass and a funny detective hat. The child is looking at a big, colorful question mark. Inside the question mark is a bright star. A small, friendly cartoon lamb is sitting next to the child, wearing a tiny detective hat too. The title THE MYSTERY VISITOR is in a chunky, bouncy, playful font. The word MYSTERY is in bright red with a magnifying glass replacing the letter M. The overall feel is fun, curious, and irresistible to a child.

Title 5 for Children is complete. All 5 Children's titles for the Theophanies concept are now done.

A quick honest note before you check. Titles 1 through 5 in this kids' set all draw from the same core appearances (the garden, the tent, the bush, the fire, the whisper, the baby). Each book is framed with a different hook (secret clues / big fun / hide and seek / surprises / mystery) so they feel distinct as products, but the underlying stories overlap across the five. This is the same overlap issue you flagged for the New Believer set, and you said we will work on overlap after finishing the kids' group.

So this closes the kids' group. When you are ready, we can do the full overlap map across all three target groups (Seeker, New Believer, Children) for all 5 titles each, so you can decide what to keep, merge, or differentiate before publishing.

(Will use repetition as emphasis)
