Why This Book Exists

When you first start following Jesus, you learn about His life. You learn about His birth. You learn about His miracles. You learn about His death. You learn about His resurrection. He is the hero of the story. He is the Savior of the world. He is the one you follow.

But then you open the Old Testament. You read about Joseph. You read about Moses. You read about David. They are heroes too. They are legends. They are giants of the faith. They did amazing things. They led people. They saved nations. They defeated enemies. You might wonder, "How do they connect to Jesus? Are they just old stories? Or do they point to something greater?"

Here is the secret. They are not the real hero. They are shadows. They are echoes. They are patterns. They are previews. They point to the real hero. They point to Jesus. Joseph was rejected by his brothers. Moses was rejected by his people. David was rejected by his family. But they all became deliverers. They all became saviors. And they all point to the ultimate rejected deliverer. They all point to Jesus.

This book is for you. You are new to the faith. You are building your foundation. Over the next 30 days, we are going to look at the lives of Joseph, Moses, and David. We are going to see their stories. We are going to see their parallels. And we are going to see how they reveal your Savior. They are the heroes. But Jesus is the real hero.

The Value You Will Get

By the end of this book, you will not see Joseph, Moses, and David as just old stories. You will see them as previews. You will see them as patterns. You will see them as blueprints. You will understand their lives. You will understand their parallels. You will understand why they matter for your new life. You will have a new confidence in your faith. You will have a new love for your Bible. And you will have a new appreciation for the real hero.
